

PRESIDENT VISITS THE WORLD'S FAIR

Care Guarded By Troops of the Sixteenth Infantry.

WILL SPEND ONLY ONE DAY

The Special Train Arrived Without a Misadventure and President Roosevelt and Party Will Make a Hurried Trip of Sightseeing at the Great Exposition.

St. Louis, Nov. 28.—President's day at the Louisiana Purchase exposition dawned with a clear sky and a brisk wind of just sufficient sharpness to send the blood tingling through the veins. Ideal weather for carrying out the strenuous program arranged by the nation's chief executive, who proposes to acquire in one day a comprehensive idea of the greatest exposition in the history of the world.

Although President Roosevelt was not officially greeted by the exposition management until after 9 o'clock, the grounds were thronged long before that hour and the terminal lines to the world's fair turned its enormous crowds into the approaches to the exposition gates.

The presidential special train arrived in St. Louis at 2:40 this morning and was taken at once to the world's fair grounds where it was backed on the side track of the Northern Trans-

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

portation building. Extraordinary precautions were taken to prevent accident after the special arrived within the jurisdiction of the St. Louis Terminal association. 250 men having been stationed in the right of way so close together that each man had in sight of the one stationed either side of him.

When the train arrived at its destination two companies of the Sixteenth Infantry, United States army, who had been awaiting it, went on guard and no one was allowed to approach within 100 feet of the darkened Pullmans.

The distinguished party was early seen preparing for their day of record-breaking sightseeing. In the party were President Roosevelt, Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Roosevelt, Mr. and Mrs.
Douglas Robinson, Secretary and Mrs.
Lusk and Surgeon General Rixey, United States navy.

Two battalions of the Eighth United States cavalry, from Jefferson barracks, under the command of Colonel Anderson, and a platoon of police, preceded the carriages. In the first carriage were President Roosevelt, President David Francis, of the exposition, Miss Alice Roosevelt and Mayor Rolla Wells occupied the second carriage.
Twenty or more carriages that followed contained the other members of the presidential party, exposition officials and secret service men. Another platoon of mounted police brought up the rear and kept back an immense crowd anxious to keep pace with the party.

The route of procession was thronged with people who gave the president an ovation and kept him busy responding to their cheers. As the party proceeded through the crowd President Roosevelt repeatedly lifted his hat to those on the right and left.

Commits Suicide In Jail.

Columbus, Ind., Nov. 28.—William Falls, brought here from Harrodsburg, Ky., charged with stealing $2,200 from Charles Schnatzmeier, a farmer, committed suicide in jail at daylight on Wednesday. He took morphine near midnight, but Sheriff Phillips called a physician and pumped it out. Falls continued to insist he would take his life before morning. Sheriff Phillips stood guard all night, but just at daybreak went away to get the prisoner's breakfast and was only absent ten minutes and on his return he found Falls hanging dead in his cell.

Will Return Forger to America.

London, Nov. 28.—William Wallace alias James Wilson, arrested in Liverpool Nov. 24, charged with forging stock certificates to the value of $30,- 000 from Edward Bretting, a banker of Marquette, Mich., was remanded at Bow street police court today to await the arrival of witnesses. His attorney said Wallace was anxious to return to the United States at the earliest possible moment.

RIVER LOCKS ARE OPENED.

Residents of Cumberland River Valley Celebrating Event.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 28.—This is a memorable day in the history of Cumberland River valley, for the reason that locks 1 and A, the first 2 miles below Nashville, and the other 42 miles further down the river, have been completed and were today thrown open to the public.

The ceremonies at Lock No. 1 were the principal exercises of the day, began at 10:15 o'clock. Addresses were delivered at that lock by Hon. M. T.
Bryan, president of the Cumberland river commission; Major H. C. Newcomer, who officially opened the lock, and by Senator William B. Bate, Senator E. W. Carmack, Governor James B. Frazier and others.

The exercises were concluded about 11 o'clock, when the journey to Lock A commenced. At Ashland City, which is about midway between Lock A and Lock No. 1, the boats will land and will be boarded by delegations from that place and Sycamore. At Ashland City will be put aboard a large supply of barbecue, contributed by the citizens of that place and Sycamore.

The boats will arrive at Lock A about 3:30 o'clock, where ceremonies similar to those at Lock 1 will take place.

BAPTIST CONVENTION ADJOURNS

Meets in Macon Next Year—Contributions Largely Increased.

Columbus, Ga., Nov. 28.—The Georgia Baptist convention came to an end late Friday afternoon, after a four days' session, in which Baptists increased largely their contributions to the causes of foreign missions and education, took under their direct charge the Hapeville orphanage and agreed to spend $30,000 in improvements there; took high ground in condemning the twin evils of crime and lynching and declared "undying antagonism" to the whisky traffic.

The convention will meet next at Macon, on Thursday before the third Sunday in November, 1905.

Rev. A. B. Vaughan was selected to preach the next convention sermon, Rev. L. E. Roberts being the alternate. President Jackson, of Monroe college, announced that a south Georgian had given $5,000 to that institution.

REV. FOOTE FOUND GUILTY.

Suspended One Year From the Methodist Conference.

Marietta, Ga., Nov. 28.—A minimum amount of words and a maximum amount of work that is of interest to every charge of the North Georgia conference characterized the third session of the thirty-eighth annual meeting of the body Friday morning.

Naturally the most interest incident of the day to laymen and churchmen who are not allied with Methodism was the finding of the trial committee in the charges against Rev. W.
R. Foote, D.D., of Rome, Ga. The verdict of the trial committee is as follows:

"We, the committee of trial in the case of Rev. W. R. Foote, charged with immorality, find the accused guilty, and recommend that he be suspended for the ensuing year.

TUGS GO TO THE RESCUE.

American Schooner, General Whiting
on the Rocks in Mexico.

Mobile, Ala., Nov. 28.—Tug boats left here today for Campeche banks, Mexico, to render assistance to the American schooner General Whiting, which went on a reef near the Mexican coast several days ago. The vessel is dismasted, sails and rigging gone and is lying on the reef but is resting easy. She was returning from her maiden voyage to Mexico with 450,000 feet of lumber.

The vessel was built especially for this trade at a cost of $25,000, and is one of the finest and most modern ships of her class afloat. The General Whiting is insured.

Four Men Held for Stabbing.

Asheville, N. C., Nov. 28.—Four men, William Johnson, Ernest Statton, Doc Newman and a man who gives his name as Young, have been arrested, and are now in jail, charged with being implicated in the stabbing of Hackman James Hewes, on the Victoria road, late last Wednesday night.
The sheriff is confident that among them he has the man who did the cutting.

Two Deaths the Same Night.

McIntosh, Ga., Nov. 28.—Mrs. Ida Smith, wife of the late Olin Smith, died in Hinesville Wednesday night.
She was a lady of fine Christian character, and leaves a large family, her oldest son being connected with the Savannah postoffice. At 9 o'clock occurred the death of her brother, Glen W. Farmer, deputy sheriff of the county.

Killed in Cane Mill Cogs.

Valdosta, Ga., Nov. 28.—J. L. Yates, a prominent farmer of the Nankin neighborhood of Brooks county, died Thursday as the result of an accident which occurred to him about a week ago. He was caught in his cane mill while making sirup, and his body was thrown down into the cogs of the mill, breaking the collar bone and lacerating the upper part of his body.

SICK JUROR STOPS PATTERSON TRIAL

Both Sides Are Getting Their Evidence In Shape.

CASE CONTINUED TILL MONDAY

While the prisoner and witnesses were quietly spending the Thanksgiving holiday the attorneys were busy hunting testimony.

New York, Nov. 28.—After a respite of two days on account of the Thanksgiving holiday, the trial of Nan Patterson for the murder of Caesar Young was continued today in the criminal branch of the supreme court. Although the members of the jury and the defendant gave themselves over to complete rest during the interval afforded by the recess, the attorneys in the case took advantage of the intermission in an entirely different way. All their energies were exerted toward bringing closer together the material points upon which depends the success or failure of their case.

The illness of a juror caused a sudden and unexpected adjournment in the Patterson murder trial which was to have been continued in the criminal branch of the supreme court today after Thanksgiving holiday recess.

When everything was in readiness to proceed it was announced that Juror Edward Dressler was too ill to leave his home. There remained no alternative but to suspend the trial for the time being, and an adjournment was ordered by Justice Davis.

Probably never before in the history of a murder trial in this city was there organized by the district attorneys of New York what might well be called a flying squadron of detectives. Assistant District Attorney Rand has enlisted in his service county detectives, who are stationed at the entrance of the court room for no other purpose than to accept at a moment's notice an order to sally from the building and investigate the character and standing of a new witness for the defense.

All of the testimony thus far produced has been leading up to what the prosecution declares was the motive for the crime and with the beginning of today's session it is expected that Assistant District Attorney Rand will begin to unfold the crucially important feature of his case.

MAN SLAYS HIS UNCLE.

Accusations About a Business Transaction Cause of Tragedy.

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 28.—As a result of a business rivalry W. R. Murray has shot and instantly killed his uncle, J. S. Murray, at Durham, N. C.
The shooting took place in front of the store of the dead man, on Main street, in the business section of the city.

Both men had been running music stores and were well known business men. W. R. Murray, who did the shooting, is a brother-in-law of I. E.
Emerson, of Baltimore, Md., the well known chemist.

Early in the morning J. S. Murray was preparing to ship a piano, and he accused a salesman of W. R. Murray of watching and prying into his business for the purpose of trying to thwart the trade.

W. R. Murray heard that his salesman had been so accused, and accompanied by his son, Earle Murray, he went to the store of his uncle, which is about half a block from his own place of business. At the door he was met by J. S. Murray.

A short, bitter quarrel followed, and J. S. Murray pulled his revolver and began shooting at W. R. and Earle Murray.

Prostrated Before He Reached Gallows Batesville, Ark., Nov. 28.—Robert Causby was hanged Friday for the murder of Sheriff Jeff D. Morgan, which occurred Sept. 15, 1904, in this city. Causby was practically a dead man before he reached the gallows and the attending physician thought it would not be possible to get him to the place of execution with enough life left into his body to extinguish with the noose, as he was a complete wreck from nervous prostration.

Gave Her Life for Others.

Mexico, Mo., Nov. 28.—After heroically nursing back to health the small pox-stricken family of R. S. McKinney, Miss May Rutter, of this city, died from the disease. Miss Rutter believed herself immune from the disease, but four days ago the heroic girl developed symptoms of the disease, and, although there were many persons whom her example inspired with the abandonment of self-sacrifice, and who were present at her side to nurse her, she did not rally from the attack.

Killed Over Division of Crop.

Covington, Ga., Nov. 28.—W. J.
Blankenship, an aged white man of Oak Hill, 12 miles west of Covington, was shot and killed by J. A. Scott, a wealthy bachelor farmer of that community. Blankenship rents land from Scott and it is reported that the two men have had difficulties recently over matters pertaining to the division of Blankenship's crop.

WE EAT MEAT

To grow strong. Unless we get good meat we may as well let it alone. There is no strength in tough meat—instead of giving it takes strength to digest it. It pays to be careful in buying meat—be sure to get the best—tender and choice.
Pay a little more if need be and
